

REPORT

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF WAR,

TRANSMITTING

Statements showing the rejected applications for pensions during the year 1839.

DECEMBER 24, 1839.

Referred to the Committee on Pensions, and ordered to be printed.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
December 19, 1839.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit, herewith, a report of the acting Commissioner of Pensions, containing the information which is required to be laid before each session of Congress, by a resolution of May 29, 1830, in relation to pensioners, revolutionary, invalid, or otherwise, who shall have made application for a pension, or increase of pension, &c.

Very respectfully, your most obedient servant,

J. R. POINSETT,
Secretary of War.

Hon. WILLIAM R. KING,
President of the Senate, pro tem.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Pension Office, December 5, 1839.

SIR: By a resolve of Congress (No. 7) which was passed on the 29th of May, 1830, it is made the duty of the Secretary of War to present, at each session of Congress, to the Senate and House of Representatives, a several list of such persons, whether revolutionary, invalid, or otherwise, as shall have made application for a pension, or an increase of pension, and as in his opinion ought to be placed upon the pension roll, or otherwise provided for, and for doing which he has not sufficient power or authority; with the names and residence of such persons, the capacity in which they served, the degree of relief proposed, and a brief statement of the grounds thereof, to the end that Congress may consider the same.

As some difficulty arises as to the true interpretation of the resolution, it is deemed proper to state to you that all claims for pensions, when provided for by law, and supported by the requisite proof, are admitted. Such as are provided for by law, and are not substantiated by the necessary evidence, are not allowed, and the applicants are required to exhibit the usual testimony; and such claims as are not provided for by any act of Congress are absolutely rejected.

Blair & Rives, printers.

Lists of claims rejected, marked A, B, C, and D, and which cannot, under any existing law, be admitted at this office, are herewith submitted to you, to the end that the object contemplated by the resolution may be effected.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, sir, your obedient servant,

G. W. CRUMP,

Acting Commissioner of Pensions.

Hon. J. R. POINSETT,

Secretary of War.

DECEMBER 24, 1839.

Referred to the Committee on Pensions and ordered to be printed.

WAR DEPARTMENT,

December 19, 1839.

Sir: I have the honor to transmit herewith a report of the Acting Commissioner of Pensions, containing the information which is required to be laid before each session of Congress, by a resolution of May 29, 1830, in relation to pensioners revolutionarily invalid, or otherwise, who shall have made application for a pension, or increase of pension, &c. Very respectfully, your most obedient servant,

J. R. POINSETT,

Secretary of War.

Hon. WILLIAM R. KING,

President of the Senate, pro tem.

WAR DEPARTMENT,

Pension Office, December 5, 1839.

Sir: By a resolve of Congress (No. 7) which was passed on the 29th of May, 1830, it is made the duty of the Secretary of War to present at each session of Congress, to the Senate and House of Representatives, a several list of such persons, whether revolutionarily invalid, or otherwise, as shall have made application for a pension, or an increase of pension, and as in his opinion ought to be placed upon the pension roll, or otherwise provided for, and for doing which he has not sufficient power or authority; with the names and residence of such persons, the capacity in which they served, the degree of relief proposed, and a brief statement of the grounds thereof, to the end that Congress may consider the same. As some difficulty arises as to the true interpretation of the resolution, it is deemed proper to state to you that all claims for pensions, when pro-

A.

A list of persons who claim pensions on account of wounds and other injuries, alleged to have been received while in the service of the United States, and whose claims have not been admitted; prepared in conformity with a resolution of Congress of the 29th May, 1830, viz :

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
NEW YORK.
Josiah Hunt - -	Sergeant	The law granting pensions for wounds received during the revolutionary war expired in 1834, and has not since been renewed. The rolls of the army show that he deserted.
Leonard Lilley - -	Private
INDIANA.
John McEndree - -	Private	It does not appear that he was ever wounded while in service, and in the performance of his duty; nor is it probable that such was the fact, as he says, that he received the wound in the year 1790, and did not apply for a pension before 1839.
FLORIDA.
Thomas Randall - -	1st lieut.	His name cannot be placed on the pension roll as long as he holds an office of emolument under the United States Government.

B.

A statement showing the names, residence, and rank, of persons whose claims on account of revolutionary services, under the act of June 7, 1832, have been rejected, and the reasons for rejecting the same; prepared in conformity with a resolution of Congress of 29th May, 1830, viz :

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
MAINE.
Edmund Coffin -	Waiter	Did not serve in a military capacity. Case not provided for.
NEW HAMPSHIRE.
Thomas Bootman -	Recruiting drummer.	Did not serve in a military capacity. Case not provided for.
Willey Hill -	Musician	Did not serve so long as six months.
John Langmaid -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
VERMONT.
Robert Babcock -	Private	Did not serve in a military capacity. Case not provided for.
MASSACHUSETTS.
Jacob Adams -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Amos Tirrell -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months in a military capacity.

B—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
MASSACHUSETTS—Cont'd.
Jeremiah Thomas -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Jesse Tourtellot -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
CONNECTICUT.
William Cogswell -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Eber Strong -	Private, &c.	Did not serve so long as six months in a military capacity. Case not provided for.
Henry Seymour -	Clerk to contractors of the army.	Did not serve in a military capacity. Case not provided for.
NEW YORK.
Moses Bradley -	Private	His name is not found on the rolls of the regiment in which he says he served; nor on the rolls of any other regiment in the line of the State in which he says he served.
PENNSYLVANIA.
Richard Cooley -	Private	Did not perform six months' military service.
George Dobson -	Private	Did not perform six months' military service.
Thomas Henderson	Private and wagoner.	Did not serve six months in a military capacity.
David Williams -	Private	Did not perform six months' military service.
Joseph Armstrong	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Joseph Pierce -	Private	Did not serve six months in a military capacity.
Adam Sheaffer -	Lieutenant	Did not serve six months in a military capacity.
MARYLAND.
Jacob Krick -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
The heirs of Abraham White deceased.	Captain	Did not perform six months' service in the American army; the larger portion of his services having been in the French army. Case not provided for.
NORTH CAROLINA.
Amos Rayner -	Private	Did not serve six months in a military capacity.
GEORGIA.
William Nevis -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
TENNESSEE.
Eli Coffee -	Private	Did not perform six months' actual service.
John Bradberry -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months in a military capacity.
John Crutchfield -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Rowland Horseley	Sergeant	Did not serve six months in a military capacity.
Jacob Hollingsworth	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Edmund Partee -	Shoemaker, &c.	Did not perform six months' military service.
William Ryall -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months in the revolutionary war.
Stephen Snell -	Private	Did not serve in a military capacity.
Rowland Ledbetter	Private	Did not perform six months' military service.
Benjamin Reeder	Private	Did not serve six months in a regularly organized corps.

B—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
KENTUCKY.
Jeremiah Browning -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
John Bennett -	Private	Did not serve in a military capacity.
David Blue -	Private and wagoner.	Did not serve six months in a military capacity.
William Mills -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
John Suddarth -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
ALABAMA.
Malone Anstill -	Spy	Did not serve till after the termination of the revolutionary war.
Thomas Fulton -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months in a military capacity.
Henry Jones -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Larkin Sullivan -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Abraham Aichley -	Sergeant	Did not serve six months in the revolutionary war.
MISSISSIPPI.
John Roberts -	Private	Did not serve in a military capacity.
ARKANSAS.
Benjamin Owens -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
MISSOURI.
Thomas Fitzgerald -	Private	Did not serve six months in the revolutionary war.
OHIO.
Noah Cowles -	Private and Marine.	Did not serve so long as six months.
James Dennis -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Walter Denny -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Samuel Elliott -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
John Fenstermacher -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
John Frey -	Private	Served under General Wayne, against the Indians, after the close of the revolutionary war. Case not provided for.
Elisha Gunn -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Daniel T. Goodwin -	Private	Served after the close of the revolutionary war. Case not provided for.
John Kress -	Sergeant	The paper produced as a discharge is not genuine.
David Reed -	Waiter	Did not serve in a military capacity.
Julius Terry -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
John Black -	B'uman, &c.	Did not serve six months in a military capacity.
Peter Keister -	Private	Did not serve by order of competent authority.
INDIANA.
Ambrose Maness -	Private	Did not serve six months in a military capacity.
Nathaniel Bell -	Private	Did not serve in a regularly organized corps.
James Thompson -	Private and Indian spy.	Did not serve six months in a military capacity.
Thomas Thompson -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Isaac Wright -	Wagoner	Did not serve in a military capacity.
Samuel Cary -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
Adam Fox -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.

B—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
ILLINOIS.
Levi Casey - -	Indian spy	Service performed after the close of the revolutionary war.
David Carroll - -	Wagoner	Did not serve six months in a military capacity. Case not provided for.
John Flatt - -	Private	Did not serve so long as six months.
David Shipman - -	Private and wagoner.	Did not serve six months in a military capacity.
Charles Waddell -	Ensign	He served, after the close of the revolutionary war, in the years 1792 and 1793.
MICHIGAN.
Stephen Case - -	Waiter, &c.	Did not serve in a military capacity.

C.

A statement showing the names and residence of the widows and orphans whose claims, under the act of the 4th of July, 1836, have been rejected, the rank of the deceased officers and soldiers on account of whose service the claims were presented, and the reasons for rejecting the same; prepared in conformity with a resolution of Congress of the 29th of May, 1830, viz:

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Under what section claimed.	Reasons for rejection.
MAINE.
Mary Collins, widow of Richard Collins.	Private	Third	Her husband left the service before the time of his enlistment had expired.
Abigail Fitz, formerly the widow of John Morgan, and now the widow of Abraham Fitz.	Private	Third	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Rachel Ray, widow of William Ray.	Captain in the navy.	Third	Her husband served on board a private armed vessel. Case not provided for.
Mary Hill, widow of William Hill.	Private	First	Her husband belonged to the regular army. Case not provided for.
VERMONT.
Jemima Gerald, widow of Gamaliel Gerald.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's military service.
Jerusha Slack, widow of Joseph Slack.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's military service.
MASSACHUSETTS.
Anna Cole, widow of Henry Cole.	Private	Third	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Mercy Cogswell, widow of Benjamin Cogswell.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's military service.

C—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Under what section claimed.	Reasons for rejection.
MASSACHUSETTS—Cont'd.
Martha Barnard, formerly the widow of Timothy Bailey, and now the widow of John Barnard.	Private	Third	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Lydia Dunham, widow of Cornelius Dunham.	Commander in the navy.	Third	Served on board a privateer. Case not provided for.
Betty Goddard, formerly the widow of Oliver Russell, and now the widow of Benj. Goddard.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service.
Sarah Gouffran, widow of James Gouffran.	Private	First	Her husband belonged to the regular army. Case not provided for.
Susannah Higgins, widow of Timothy Higgins.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service.
CONNECTICUT.
Mary Franes, widow of James Franes.	Private	Third	Her husband left the service before the expiration of the time for which he had enlisted.
Affiah Fairchild, formerly the widow of Noadiah Holcomb, and now the widow of Daniel Fairchild.	Sergeant	Third	Not married till after the termination of Noadiah Holcomb's service.
Alletta Osborn, widow of Shadrach Osborn.	Q'rterm'n, &c.	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service.
Mary Ripley, widow of Jabez Ripley.	Private	Third	Her husband did not serve so long as six months in a military capacity.
NEW YORK.
Elcey Bailey, widow of Joseph Bailey, 2d.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service.
Margaret Corwin, widow of Gershom Corwin.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service.
Mehitable Davis, widow of Harma Davis.	Private	Third	Her husband left the service before the expiration of the time for which he enlisted.
Chloe Dains, widow of Jesse Dains.	Private	Third	Her husband, in his declaration for a pension, refers to places of service, and names of officers, which are not corroborated by the history of the times, or regiments in service.
Olive Edwards, widow of Joseph Edwards.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service.
Nancy Gramps, widow of John P. Gramps.	Private & batteaux-man.	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service.
Em. Hall, widow of Aaron Hall.	Private	Third	Not married till after the close of the revolutionary war.
Catharine Johnson, widow of William Johnson.	Private	Third	Not married till after the close of the revolutionary war.
Ann Knepley, daughter of James Butler, dec'd.	Sergeant	First	The pension laws do not provide for the children of deceased revolutionary soldiers.
The children of Azariah W. Odell, deceased.	Major	First	Their father belonged to the regular army. Case not provided for.
Wealthy Stillman, widow of Wait Stillman.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service.

C—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Under what section claimed.	Reasons for rejection.
NEW JERSEY.
Catharine Edgar, widow of Archibald Edgar.	Private	Third	Her husband left the service before the time for which he enlisted had expired.
PENNSYLVANIA.
Mary Dawson, widow of Anthony Dawson.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service.
Charlotte Garis, widow of Valentine Garis.	Private	Third	Her husband did not perform six months' military service.
Catharine Kehl, widow of Jacob Kehl.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service.
Elizabeth Kann, widow of Peter Kann.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service.
Mary Lyon, widow of John Lyon.	Private	Third	Not married till after her husband's service had terminated.
Mary Wilson, widow of Archibald Wilson.	Sergeant	Third	Her husband did not serve so long as six months in a military capacity.
Mary Wolfe, widow of John Wolfe.	Sergeant	Third	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Jane Wallace, widow of John Wallace.	Private	First	Her husband belonged to the regular army. Case not provided for.
Catha. Hoffman, widow of Ludwick Hoffman.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service in a military capacity.
Barbara Stahle, widow of Jacob Stahle.	Private	Third	Not married till after the termination of her husband's service.
MARYLAND.
Martha Kelley, widow of William Kelley.	Ensign & captain.	Third	Her husband did not perform six months' military service.
VIRGINIA.
Frances Baker, widow of Richard Baker.	Private	Third	She was not married till the year 1811. Case not provided for.
MISSISSIPPI.
Catharine Null, formerly the widow of John Myers, and now the widow of Wm. Null.	Private & lieut.	Third	Her husband did not serve in a military capacity. Case not provided for.
TENNESSEE.
Barbara Craig, widow of John Craig.	Private	Third	Her husband did not serve six months in a military capacity.
Hannah Davis, widow of Jonathan Davis.	Private	Third	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Elizabeth Davis, widow of Jonathan Davis.	Private	Third	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Lydia Ray, widow of Joseph Ray.	Private	Third	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Nancy Riley, widow of William Riley.	Private	Third	She was not married until after the expiration of her husband's service.
Elizabeth Walker, widow of John Walker.	Sergeant	Third	Not married till after her husband left the service.

C—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Under what section claimed.	Reasons for rejection.
KENTUCKY.
Charity Curtis, widow of Fielding N. Curtis.	Sergeant & private.	Third	Not married till after her husband left the service.
Jane Crook, widow of Jeremiah Crook.	Private	Third	Not married till after her husband left the service.
Betsey Cooper, widow of John Cooper.	Private	Third	Not married till after her husband left the service.
OHIO.
Ab'l Bartholomew, widow of Benj. Bartholomew.	Cl'k in the comm'y's dept.	Third	Her husband did not serve in a military capacity. Case not provided for.
The widow or children of Thos. Corson, deceased.	Private	First	Her husband belonged to the regular army. Case not provided for.
Sarah Cockerill, widow of Hanson Cockerill.	Private	Third	Not married till after her husband left the service.
Lucinda Hovey, widow of William Hovey.	Private & sergeant.	Third	Not married till after her husband left the service.
Honor Haze, formerly the widow of Matthew Patterson.	Private	First	Her husband belonged to the regular army. Case not provided for.
Keziah Woods, widow of Joseph Woods.	Corporal	Third	Not married till after her husband left the service.
ILLINOIS.
Martha Burt, widow of Jacob Burt.	Musician	First	Her husband belonged to the regular army. Case not provided for.
TERRITORY OF FLORIDA.
Esther Lowther, widow of Bourbon L. Lowther.	Private	First	Her husband died after he left the service, and not of wounds received in the service of the United States.
NORTH CAROLINA.
Elizabeth Smith, widow of Reuben Smith.	Private	Third	Not married till after her husband left the service.
SOUTH CAROLINA.
Jane Fleming, widow of James Fleming.	Private	Third	Not married till after her husband left the service.
Dicy Martin, widow of Martin Martin.	Private	Third	Not married till after her husband left the service.
Elizabeth Wood, widow of John Wood.	Private	Third	Not married till after her husband left the service.

A statement showing the names and residence of the widows whose claims, under the act of the 7th of July, 1838, have been rejected, the rank of the deceased officers and soldiers, on account of whose service the claims were presented, and the reasons for rejecting the same; prepared in conformity with a resolution of Congress of the 29th of May, 1830.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
MAINE.
Isabella Blethen, widow of Increase Blethen.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Sarah Bragdon, widow of William Bragdon.	Private	Her husband deserted, and did not again return to the service.
Abiah Clewley, widow of Isaac Clewley.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Elizabeth Coolbroth, widow of Daniel Coolbroth.	Private	Her husband deserted.
Lucy Crosby, formerly the widow of Amos Shed, and now the widow of Jonah Crosby.	Private	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Mary Graves, widow of Samuel Graves.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Lucy Ingraham, widow of Job Ingraham.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Anna Irish, widow of Isaac Irish.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Jane Marston, widow of Nathaniel Marston.	Private	Her husband deserted.
Lucy Murray, widow of James Murray.	Wagoner	Her husband did not serve in a military capacity. Case not provided for.
Mary Schwartz, widow of Peter Schwartz.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Hannah Smith, formerly the widow of Isaac Thayer, and now the widow of Isaiah Smith.	Lieutenant	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Anna Trask, widow of Moses Trask.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Olive Thomson, widow of Joseph Thomson.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Phebe Whitney, formerly the widow of Elijah Davis, and now the widow of Asa Whitney.	Private	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Sarah Winchester, widow of Silas Winchester.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Elizabeth Woodbury, formerly the widow of Joseph Webber, and now the widow of J. Woodbury.	Private	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
NEW HAMPSHIRE.
Betsey Avery, widow of Moses Avery.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Sarah Butler, widow of John Butler.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Martha Holman, widow of Edward Holman.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Clarissa Huntley, widow of Elisha Huntley.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.

D—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
NEW HAMPSHIRE—Cont'd.
Abigail Hadley, widow of Abijah Hadley.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Mary Hale, formerly the widow of Wm. Parker, and now the widow of Jonathan Hale.	Surgeon	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Elizabeth Ham, widow of Ephraim Ham.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mary Heard, widow of Amos Heard.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Sarah Lufkin, widow of Samuel Lufkin.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Abigail Robb, widow of Samuel Robb.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Parma Towle, widow of Levi Towle.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Mehitable Tilton, widow of Jeremiah Tilton.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Elizabeth Williams, formerly the widow of Daniel Kidder, and now the widow of David Williams.	Fifer	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Salley Willey, widow of Josiah Willey.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Elizab. Woodward formerly the widow of Jonathan Pool, and now the widow of James Woodward.	Surgeon's mate.	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Eunice May, widow of Thomas May.	Private and mariner.	Did not serve so long as six months in the army; and his other service was on board a privateer. Case not provided for.
Susanna Dearborn, widow of Josiah Dearborn.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
VERMONT.
Abigail Burton, widow of Josiah Burton.	Sergeant	Her husband deserted.
Esther Bishop, widow of John Bishop.	Private	Her husband did not perform six months' actual service.
Mary Bailey, formerly the widow of Ephraim Eddy, and now the widow of Frye Bailey.	Serg't, dept'y commissary, and waiter.	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Abigail Ball, widow of James Ball.	Private	Her husband deserted.
Hannah Clement, widow of Reuben Clement.	Private	Not entitled under the act of July 7, 1838, she having made a claim under the act of July 4, 1836, which has been suspended.
Edna Clark, widow of Elisha Clark.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mary Crampton, formerly the widow of James Benjamin, and now the widow of Neri Crampton.	Ensign	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Jemima Holden, formerly the widow of Samuel Marsh, and now the widow of Jos. Holden.	Private	Not entitled to a pension under the act of July 7, 1838, she being now in the receipt of a pension under the act of July 4, 1836, for the services of Samuel Marsh.

D—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
VERMONT—Continued.
Mercy Heath, widow of James Heath.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Anna Knox, widow of William Knox.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Rebecca Lucas, widow of Elisha Lucas.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mary Merrill, formerly the widow of Daniel Clapp, and now the widow of Jas. Merrill.	Lieutenant	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Betty Parker, widow of Thomas Parker.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Elizabeth Rice, widow of Jonas Rice.	Private and lieutenant.	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Eunice Rose, widow of Thomas Rose.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Sarah Smith, widow of John Smith.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Sarah Welch, widow of John Welch.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
MASSACHUSETTS.
Mary Bliss, widow of Jacob Bliss.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Elizabeth Bisbee, widow of Gideon Bisbee.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Betty Colman, formerly the widow of David Emery, and now the widow of Moses Colman.	Private	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Mehitable D. Colton, formerly widow of Pownel Deming, and now the widow of Luther Colton.	Captain and forage master.	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Benj. B. Bumpus the only surviving child of Elizabeth Cole, formerly the widow of Ab'ham Bumpus, and at the time of her death the widow of Nathaniel Cole.	Mariner	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Linda Crapo, widow of John Crapo.	Private	The name of her husband is not found on the rolls of the regiment in which it is said he served.
Pamela Clapp, widow of Eliakim Clapp.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Esther Clark, widow of Comfort Clark.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Catharine T. W. Callender, widow of William Callender.	Matross	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Lucy Dodge, formerly the widow of Silas Adams, and now the widow of Daniel Dodge.	Captain	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Margaret Dickinson, wid. of Timothy Dickinson.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Meribah Evans, widow of William Evans.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Abigail Fiske, widow of Nathan Fiske.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.

D—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
MASSACHUSETTS—Cont'd.
Deborah Fish, widow of Isaac Fish.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Abigail Foster, widow of Nathan Foster.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Elizabeth Forbes, widow of John Forbes.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Alice Fletcher, formerly the widow of Ralph Emerson, and now the wid. of Phineas Fletcher.	Private	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Persis Fullerton, widow of Samuel Fullerton.	Private	The rolls to which she refers do not show that her husband served so long as six months.
Mary Fuller, widow of Ezekiel Fuller.	Sergeant	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Olive B. Gee, widow of Ebenezer Gee.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Kate Gilbert, formerly the widow of Scipio Bartlett, and now the widow of John Gilbert.	Private	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Deborah Hovey, widow of Amos Hovey.	Sergeant & private.	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Ruth Hall, formerly the widow of Wm. Lurvey, and now the widow of Joseph Hall.	Private	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Tirzah Hunt, formerly the widow of Joshua Bates, and now the wid. of Ebenezer Hunt.	Private and sergeant.	She having married since the death of her first husband, cannot claim for his services, nor is she entitled for the services of the second, who also served in the revolutionary war, as she was not married to him till 1803.
Sally Kitfield, widow of William Kitfield.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Asenath Lombard, widow of Jonathan Lombard.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mary Mooers, formerly the widow of J. Coffin, and now the widow of John Mooers.	Private	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Mercy Matthews, widow of Nathaniel Matthews.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Hannah Marshall, widow of Moses Marshall.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Martha Maynard, widow of Benjamin Maynard.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Ann Morse, widow of Obadiah Morse.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Lydia Moody, formerly the widow of W. Story, and now the widow of Enoch Moody.	Captain	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Azubah Paine, widow of Joel Paine.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Elizabeth Parker, widow of Benjamin Parker.	Private	Her husband deserted.
Abigail Peabody, widow of Samuel Peabody.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Anna Peabody, widow of Stephen Peabody.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Desire Pease, widow of Peter Pease.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.

D—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
MASSACHUSETTS—Cont'd.
Eleanor Perry, widow of William W. Perry.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Ruth Pratt, widow of Whitcom Pratt.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Sarah Sawyer, formerly the widow of Thomas Frothingham, and now the widow of Richard Sawyer.	Sergeant	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Susannah Seaver, widow of William Seaver.	Private	Her husband deserted.
Priscilla Shoff, widow of John Shoff.	Private and sergeant.	Her husband deserted.
Prudence Smith, widow of Isaac Smith.	Private and Fifer.	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mehitable Snow, widow of Nathaniel Snow.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Abigail Thayer, widow of Samuel Thayer.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Polly D. White, widow of Thomas White.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Olive Wight, widow of John Wight.	Sergeant	She was not married until after the first of January, 1794. Case not provided for.
Silvina Winslow, widow of Lemuel Winslow.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Nancy Wilson, widow of John O. Wilson.	Surgeon	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Sarah Woodard, widow of John Woodard.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Elizabeth Warriner, wid. of Abner Warriner.	Private	Her husband deserted, and did not again return to the service.
Hannah Farmer, widow of Oliver Farmer.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Ruth Hitchings, widow of Thomas Hitchings.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Sarah Newhall, widow of Daniel A. B. Newhall.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Esther Stimpson, widow of Ebenezer Stimpson.	Private	The alleged service of her husband is not sustained by the rolls.
Polly Thomas, widow of Robert Thomas.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
RHODE ISLAND.
Molly Hayford, widow of Daniel Hayford.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Amey Potter, widow of William Potter.	Ensign and lieutenant.	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mehitable Salisbury, wid. of Charles Salisbury.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mary Tewgood, widow of Jonathan Tewgood.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
CONNECTICUT.
Rebecca Brown, widow of John Brown.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Molly Beers, widow of David Beers.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Eunice Cressey, widow of Gould Cressey.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.

D—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
CONNECTICUT—Cont'd.
Mercy Curtis, widow of Agur Curtis.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Rebecca Hibberd, widow of Bushnell Hibberd.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Anor Lockwood, widow of Isaac Lockwood.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Jemima Randall, widow of Amos Randall.	Private and corporal.	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Rebecca Rogers, widow of Noadiah Rogers.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Lydia Smith, widow of Benjamin Smith.	Private	Her husband deserted.
Elizabeth Tucker, widow of Elisha Tucker.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Sila Tillotson, widow of George Tillotson.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Elizabeth Waugh, widow of Samuel Waugh.	Sergeant	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
NEW YORK.
Louisa Fleming, widow of Benoni Fleming.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Ruth Handy, widow of Joseph Handy.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Anna Jones, widow of Nehemiah Jones.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Anna D. Miller, widow of John Miller.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Hester Morrell, widow of Jesse Morrell.	Private	She was not married until after the first of January, 1794. Case not provided for.
Martha Owen, widow of David Owen.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Achsah Stalker, widow of Peter Stalker.	Sergeant	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mary Shurtliffe, widow of Amasa Shurtliffe.	Private	Sarah Shurtliffe, the lawful widow of Amasa Shurtliffe, is now in the receipt of a pension, for his revolutionary services.
Elizabeth Sizer, widow of Lemuel Sizer.	Sergeant	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Martha Thompson, widow of Shadrach Thompson.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Olive Thornton, widow of Thomas Thornton.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Abigail Tidd, widow of John Tidd.	Private	Her husband's name is not found on the rolls of the companies in which it is said he served.
Anna Turner, widow of Simeon Turner.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Angelica Vroman, widow of Peter Vroman.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Catharine Wemple, wid. of Myndert B. Wemple.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Ruth Whitman, widow of George Whitman.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mary Johnson, widow of David Johnson.	Private and sergeant	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Esther Croft, widow of James Croft.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
NEW JERSEY.
Abigail Stafford, widow of James B. Stafford.	Midshipman	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.

D—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
PENNSYLVANIA.
Catharine Bruch, widow of Lewis Bruch.	Private	Her husband served in the French army only. Case not provided for.
Jane Bell, widow of Jas. R. Bell.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Margaret Cunningham, widow of Joseph Cunningham.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mary Fulmer, widow of John Fulmer.	Private	Her husband served in the French army. Case not provided for.
Jemima Miller, widow of Stephen Miller.	Sergeant	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Jane Rush, widow of Wm. Rush.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mary Summers, widow of David Summers, jr.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Agnes Smith, widow of John Smith.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Polly Finch, widow of Samuel Finch.	Private and corporal.	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
MARYLAND.
Mary Hohne, widow of Christopher Hohne.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Elizabeth Jones, formerly the widow of J. Thompson, and now the widow of Jason Jones.	Private	Her first, and second husband, also, served in the revolutionary war; but she is not entitled to a pension for the services of either. To the second husband she was married after the year 1794.
VIRGINIA.
Dorothea B. Buckner, formerly the widow of Wm. McWilliams, and now the widow of Geo. Buckner.	Major and aid-de-camp	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Mary Congleton, widow of Moses Congleton.	Musician	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Judith Carter, formerly the widow of Thomas Palmer, and now the widow of Thos. Carter.	Mariner	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Mary Summers, widow of George Summers.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Ann Zea, widow of Martin Zea.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Anna Wright, widow of Richard Wright.	Private	The name of her husband is not found on the roll; proof insufficient.
GEORGIA.
Rachel Bowen, widow of Stephen Bowen.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
TENNESSEE.
Catharine Cobb, widow of David Cobb.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months in the revolutionary war.
Betsy Hotchkiss, widow of Jared Hotchkiss.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.

D—Continued.

Names of applicants.	Rank.	Reasons for rejection.
TENNESSEE—Continued.
Sarah Locke, formerly the widow of John Wallace, and now the widow of Frank Locke.	Major and aid-de-camp	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Sally Pratt, widow of Thomas Pratt.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Nancy Read, widow of John Read.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Nancy Rock, widow of John Rock.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
KENTUCKY.
Nancy W. Curd, widow of John Curd.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mary Gibson, widow of Jacob Gibson.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Jemima Hudson, widow of Benjamin Hudson.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Trephenia Street, widow of Anthony Street.	Private	Her husband did not perform six months' military service.
Nancy Williamson, wid. of James Williamson.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Elizabeth Shelton, widow of Medley Shelton.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
OHIO.
Jane Cullens, widow of John Cullens.	Private	Her husband did not serve so long as six months.
Rachel Hopkins, widow of Ebenezer Hopkins.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Elizabeth Kellogg, widow of Eldad Kellogg.	Private	Her husband having died since the passage of the act of July 7, 1838, the case is not provided for.
Phebe Pack, widow of William Pack.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Cathrane Stevenson, wid. of George Stevenson.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Eunice Freeman, formerly the widow of Benj. Scovil, and now the widow of Elisha Freeman.	Private	She having married since the death of the husband, on account of whose service she claims, is not entitled to the benefits of the law.
Anna Taylor, widow of Benjamin Taylor.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
MICHIGAN.
Pamela Chilson, widow of Edward Chilson.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Jane Garrison, widow of Abraham Garrison.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Mary Isbel, widow of Joel Isbel.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
Lucinda Ransom, widow of Ezekiel Ransom.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.
NORTH CAROLINA.
Mary Venables, widow of John Venables.	Private	Her husband died after the passage of the act of July 7, 1838. Case not provided for.

